

Northwest Arkansas Community College
(Social & Behavioral Sciences Division)

Discipline Code
GEOG

Course Number
1123

Course Title
Human Geography

Catalog Description

An introductory study of the cultural factors that make up Human Geography and their relevance in today's world. From the viewpoint of spatial distributions, students gain a perspective on different aspects such as population growth, language, religion, political systems and economic development. Students acquire a global perspective by comparing selected countries and seeing the impact of change on their cultural landscapes.

Prerequisites
N/A

Credit Hours
3 credit hours

Contact hours
45 contact hours

Load hours
3 load hours

Semesters Offered
Fall, Spring, and Summer

ACTS Equivalent
N/A

Grade Mode
A-F

Learning Outcomes

- Recognize the significance of the geography discipline and its relevance in today's world.
- Describe how physical landscapes may influence patterns of human/cultural geography and vice-versa.
- Explain the various cultural landscapes of distinction and social organization resulting from human interaction with their physical environment.
- Exhibit critical thinking skills essential in describing human geography in a world, regional and local context.

- Describe, in depth, the geographical issues and problems in the world today.

General Education Outcomes Supported

- N/A

Standard Practices*Topics list

- N/A

Learning activities

- N/A

Assessments

- N/A

Grading guidelines

- N/A