

Northwest Arkansas Community College
(Social and Behavioral Sciences Division)

Discipline Code

SOCI

Course Number

2063

Course Title

Global Diversity

Catalog Description

A sociological examination of the global nature of racial/ethnic diversity, the causes and consequences of prejudice and discrimination, varying patterns of interaction and relationships in society from assimilation to genocide, colonialism and post-colonialism impact on indigenous populations, indigenous resistance (or counter-frame) and anti-racist movements. Emphasis on the United States is to show, through a comparative approach, that it is not unique. Countries selected for comparison will vary. Prerequisite: SOCI 2013 or consent of instructor.

Prerequisites

SOCI 2013 General Sociology or consent of instructor

Credit Hours

3 credit hours

Contact hours

3

Load hours

3

Semesters Offered

On demand

ACTS Equivalent

Grade Mode

A-F

Learning Outcomes

- Analyze how globalization impacts the social constructions of Race and Ethnicity in the United States and beyond.

- Apply basic concepts in the study of global diversity, including prejudice, stereotype, implicit bias, systemic racism, institutional discrimination, and diversity.
- Compare and contrast theoretical explanations of racial/ethnic/gender inequality and their relations to global diversity.
- Describe how racism facilitates colonialism and the subjugation of others in different countries.
- Discuss the role of colonialism and post-colonialism in the global expansion of racial inequality in different countries.

General Education Outcomes Supported

- Students will develop higher order thinking skills
- Students gain greater awareness of cultural perspectives

Standard Practices

Topics list

Learning activities

Assessments

Grading guidelines