

Mary M. White Schneider is a domestic relation, family law, litigation, mediation, and ad litem attorney who practices exclusively in Northwest AR.

Mary's office is located in downtown Rogers location of Miller | Butler.

Mary has been a mediator in family, probate, and juvenile law since 2000, and was first certified in 2003 when the initial class of mediators was first certified in AR. Mary has given many speeches on family law and mediation.

Mary joined the firm as a partner in November 2001. She began her legal career working for the insurance defense firm of Joseph Paulk & Associates, in Tulsa in 1987. After moving to Arkansas, she then joined the Slinkard Law Firm from 1989 until 1996, when she became a partner in the firm of Cochran, Schneider & Croxton, P.A.

Mary has experience in domestic relations, probate, family law, litigation, mediation, and ad litem. Mary has practiced these areas of the law throughout the majority of her career.

Mary is a Certified Mediator and Certified Ad Litem. Mary maintains these certifications by participating in numerous trainings each year.

Ms. Schneider has a particular connection to the college. Her late father is Dr. Donald E. White. Dr. White is considered to be the founding father of NWACC. He was instrumental in getting the milage passed that made way for the college, and he was the first President of the College and first Chairman of the Board of the College. Ms. Schneider is honored to serve the College with this legacy.